Decorate extend & renovate* features in the Irish Independent Property Supplement (every Friday)!

This new magazine for decorators, extenders and renovators was launched at the Self Build Show in Dublin recently. Anthea Savage, Editor for Decorate extend & renovate, will be running a regular column in PropertyPlus, the Irish Independent's glossy magazine, every Friday. She will be looking at the growing trend for extending and renovating your home, and highlighting ways in which home owners can maximise the potential of their property while also enhancing their lifestyle. For more information on home improvements, readers are directed to Decorate extend & renovate magazine

The struggling property market, together with new energy ratings for houses, is fuelling a huge rise in home improvements as house holders opt to make more of what they have rather than move. Decorate extend & renovate magazine shows home owners 'how to' get active by providing REAL inspiration and practical information on home improvements. If you want to spruce up your property, create more space or modernise for a better standard of living, Decorate extend & renovate will show you how...
